

Four Hour Scenic Tour

For this scenic tour, you will be picked up at the sea terminal and taken on a four-hour adventure. First stop will be the town of Laxey, famous for the largest working waterwheel in the world. Laxey is mainly a residential and tourist area, though in the past it was a thriving mining and fishing village.

The beach and harbour areas are well worth a visit. We will be making a stop at both the sea front and the Laxey wheel.

The Lady Isobella

Laxey Beach

After leaving Laxey, you will be taken through some of the prettiest scenery on the island, en route to Peel on the west coast.

Looking towards Snaefell

A typical Manx scene

Apart from its beautiful beaches, Peel is home to Peel Castle & the famous Manx kipper. With its narrow streets and quaint harbour you will thoroughly enjoy your time in this town. Peel sits on the west coast of the island, is the only city on the Isle of Man, and has the island's cathedral. It is here visitors will find a variety of interests, including a large ruin castle from 1392. Fishing has a long history in Peel as it was once the island's main fishing port. To this day the harbour can be seen filled with boats of the fishing trade. It is here that Herring is cured to make the famous Manx kippers.

Peel, offers many local shops and restaurants. There is an old style feel to the place with many narrow streets and small houses near the coast. There is a pleasant beach and promenade, which is nicely sheltered by hills and St Patrick's Isle. In the evening a stunning sunset can be seen, which is why Peel is also known as the Sunset City.

Peel & Peel Castle

Some of the scenes you can see in Peel

Leaving Peel, we head south along the West Coast. A few miles down the road we come to one of the most beautiful bays you will ever see, Niarbyl Bay. Niarbyl has a natural harbour and in times gone by it was the ideal place for local fishermen to launch their boats.

Niarbyl Bay

From Niarbyl, we head further south, again passing through some lovely scenery on route to Cregneish Village & the Calf Sound.

Cregneish Village

Calf of Man & Calf Sound

After spending a little while at Cregneish Village and taking in the views of the Calf Sound, maybe having a cup of coffee and a slice of home-made cake, in the Sound Cafe, we start our homeward journey towards Douglas. Last stop is Castletown, the ancient capital of Mann.

Castletown

With its narrow streets and its quaint harbour, you can relax by taking a stroll around the shops or maybe visiting the town's mediaeval castle. You may prefer to just take a little stroll around the harbour. When it's time to leave Castletown, we will take a leisurely drive back to Douglas where you can rejoin your ship or do some shopping.

The cost for this trip is £..... for 1 to 4 people or £..... for a group of 5 to 8 people.

Please Note;

The rout for this tour may alter because of weather, road closures or customer preference. You may prefer to spend more (or less) time in one place or another. The choice is yours.
